PRICE, THREE CENTS

Summary of Year 1928 Shows Many Outstanding Events Occurred Here

Boro and School Tax Rates Cut; New Post Office Erected; Other Gains.

BASEBALL PROSPERED

The year just past has been in many ways a noteworthy one in the history of Narberth. Many important and interesting events occurred and in order to help its readers recall some of them, "Our Town" has prepared a digest of the news.

The year marked by economical running of the borough Government and a consequent saving to taxpayers. Two reductions in taxes were made during the year, one of four mills in the borough tax rate and a one mill cut in the school tax rate. The floating indebtedness of the borough was also wiped out testifying to the sound financial condition of Narberth.

In the sphere of material things, two noteworthy improvements were made: the new post office and the reconstruction of Elm Hall. The former gave Narberth its first adequate post office building and the latter filled a long felt want of the Fire Company, Council and the Woman's Community Club.

The demolition of the old freight station on the railroad property and the removal of the tracks was the first step in the development of the new station program for Narberth. The clearing of the concourse has remained the only one to date, however.

Transportation facilities have increased with the advent of the Wynnewood road bus line, operating from Overbrook to Bryn Mawr. Protests against this line by residents of Narberth and Merion and by borough officials on account of the condition of the road, were of no avail.

Traffic thrust forth its hydra head at intervals throughout the year, particularly on Haverford avenue where congestion centered. Two attempts at enforcement of the regulations supposed to govern that street proved the impracticability of the present rules and the first of the year will see their overhauling.

An eminently successful baseball season was engaged in by the Narberth Baseball Club.

Games with Hilldale and House of David attracted crowds of 3000 and over to the playground. Rejoining the Main Line League in the second half, the local outfit made an uphill fight to tie the leaders and then capture the pennant by a double defeat of Berwyn. A victory over Bryn Mawr, first half winners, gave Narberth its old position of king of the diamond on the Main Line.

The year was saddened by the death of several well-known and beloved citizens.

An innovation in local educational circles took place with the summer session of the borough schools, conducted by advanced students of the University of Pennsylvania.

The spring was marked by renewed life shown by the recreation board in throwing open the Community Building to more local organizations.

The great popular enthusiasm produced everywhere by the presidential election took a similar course in the borough. Hoover and Smith Clubs were formed, record enrollment of voters in the three districts was reported by the registry assessors and an outpouring of voters never before equalled or even approached took place at the polls on November 6. The usual Republican majority held sway, despite the greatest democratic vote in the history of the borough.

Other community organizations prospered accordingly during the year. The Community Library achieved the greatest circulation for the year in its history, and by virtue of this was able to ask for a grant from council so that an experienced librarian may be hired and the work and usefulness of the library increased accordingly.

Other organizations, the Women's Community Club, the Mother's Council, the League of Women Voters, Rotary, etc., experienced interesting and successful seasons in their various activities and fields of endeavor.

Community Club Starts the New Year Right

As Longfellow said: "Not enjoyment and not sorrow, is our destined end or way, but to act that each tomorrow, finds us farther than today, so the women's Community Club will start the year 1929 by hearing at the first meeting on Tuesday, January 8, Dr. John R. Hart, chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania, who will give a lecture on "Religion and religious study."

This will be the second time that Dr. Hart will give an afternoon of his valuable time to bringing the oldest subject in the world, religion, before the eyes and ears of his hearers. Not only the Christian religion but some of the older forms of the worship of a higher power will be a part of his address.

Dr. Hart is a broad thinker and will bring to his subject a life of service in the capacity of religious teacher. Every woman in the club should sit aside this afternoon.

A desire for renewed enthusiasm of spirit in one of the greatest movements in woman's life today is evidenced by the club as it faces the new year.

Padlock Removed

The padlock which was put recently on the store of Claude H. Crane, druggist, was removed this week in favor of the Media Drug Company, which is preparing to open another Media drug store after alterations are completed.

Collegians Conquer

The Collegians inaugurated their basketball season in fine style with an impressive 24-17 victory over the Dead Enders. Wentz was high scorer with four field goals and a foul. Burgess and McKelvey led the Collegians attack with eight points each.

FORD AWARDED IN N.B.T. PRIZE CONTEST

Five Major Prizes Taken by Holders of Series A Coupons.

31 ARE YET UNCLAIMED

One spick and span Ford Coupe with a special finish is now the property of H. W. Pfeffer, of 202 Barrie road, as a result of the Board of Trade prize contest. Coupon number 303607, held by Mr. Pfeffer, did the trick. All five of the major prizes were claimed before January 2, while exactly half of the additional prizes offered by the merchants individually were claimed.

The title to the 31 unclaimed prizes now goes to the holders of coupons in series B. These will be honored until January 9, and if unclaimed by that time will be awarded to holders of series C.

The winners of the Board of Trade prizes are as follows: Ford coupe, H. W. Pfeffer, 202 Barrie road; Frigidaire, Meredith Munns, 610 Essex avenue; Radiola, William D. Gallaway, Jr., 312 Essex avenue; $50 in gold, L. R. Streauder, Avon Apartments; Walnut Windsor Chair, Mrs. Robert Scott, 303 Woodside avenue.

The winners of the minor prizes, which will be referred to by number, are as follows: No. 8, Miss Catherine Casey, 206 Woodside avenue; No. 13, Mrs. A. W. Siler, 233 Narberth avenue; No. 14, Bertha A. Manning, 235 Hampden avenue; No. 15, Mrs. C. Malehorn, 123 Grove Place; No. 16, J. E. Freeman, 503 Merwyn road; No. 19, C. P. Wetherbee, 227 North Narberth avenue; No. 20, Murray Patton, 506 Homewood avenue; No. 21, Robert M. Savill, 428 Essex avenue; No. 22, Jacob Greiner, P. O. Box 18; No. 23, Ruth I. Gault, 10 Iona avenue; No. 24, Walter Sparks, 895 North Forty-fifth street, Philadelphia; No. 25, Helen Gulch, 211 Haverford avenue; No. 26, Mrs. M. L. Sheridan, 117 Windsor avenue; No. 28, Jane Bell, Avon Apartments; No. 29, Mrs. C. W. Waters, 314 Dudley avenue; No. 30, Mrs. E. S. Duebler, Penhurst Farms; No. 31, Emily Titus, 208 Chestnut avenue; No. 31, Mrs. E. B. Maltby, 120 Essex avenue; No. 38, G. H. Heim, 214 Lantwyn lane; No. 39, M. C. Davis, 131 Kenilworth road; No. 42, Mary J. Simpson, 232 Essex avenue; No. 44, G. E. Barnes, Oakmont; No. 45, Kate R. Breckinlin, 115 Highland avenue, Cynwyd; No. 46, Mrs. John R. Kennan, 818 Montgomery; No. 52, Alice A. Cooke, 405 Beech Tree lane, Wayne; No. 54, Mrs. K. MacGregor, Wynnewood; No. 58, J. K. Athenholt, 20 Woodside avenue; No. 59, M. Tibbetts, Baird Apartments; No. 64, Elizabeth Nye, 334 Iona avenue; No. 66, Paul Lees, 133 St. Paul's road, Ardmore; No. 67, Robert J. Leitch, 221 Essex avenue.

Play Norristown

The Lower Merion basketball squad, which has been working "powerful" hard during the holidays, will journey to Norristown tonight. Little is known as to the abilities of the county seat boys, though it is usually safe to figure Coach Fishburn turns out a high-class team. Though Al Mandes has been laid up with the flu a strong lineup will be presented by Coach Anderson; one which will be expected to keep L. M.'s slate clean.

To Lead Service

Members and friends of the Narberth Presbyterian Sunday School will be given a special treat this Sunday when Irvin H. Mack, publisher of the hymn book, "The Magnificat," used by the Sunday school, is coming out to lead a special song service. Mr. Mack has unusual gifts in arousing spirited singing. Members and friends are urged to be on hand promptly at 9.45 o'clock.

W. F. M. S.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will meet on Monday, January 7, at 2.30 P. M. at the home of Mrs. Samuel MacAdams, 314 Essex avenue.

PARALLEL PARKING GOES INTO EFFECT

Change Affects Haverford Avenue Between Forest and Narberth.

WILL BE FAIR TO ALL

Parallel parking of one hour duration on both sides of Haverford avenue in the block between Narberth and Forest avenues went into effect this week. The new plan is that worked out by the Board of Trade, the Police and Fire Committee of Council, and the burgess in joint session.

The change follows two futile attempts to enforce the old regulations which were adopted about two years ago. No change was made in the parking rules for the block of Haverford between Essex and Forest, where angle parking will be permitted as hitherto on the north side of the street. No parking on the south side in this block will continue to be the rule as has been the case. The turn about at the station necessitates the enforcement of this rule on that side of Haverford.

Parallel parking on both sides of Haverford between Forest and Narberth should do much to relieve the traffic congestion in this block which always bore the brunt of the congestion. It will give the merchants on both sides of the street a fair deal and will make wider lanes for through traffic than was the case with angle parking on the north side of the street and what amounted to parking on the south side.

In addition to giving the merchants on both sides of the street an even break parallel parking on both sides will eliminate the dangers of angle parking. It was practically impossible to see whether the street was clear or not, with cars parked on either side of one trying to get out. Police accident reports have shown a decided increase in minor accidents on Haverford avenue during the last year, and it is hoped that this measure may be the means of reducing them somewhat.

The added factor of safety may be discounted in the eyes of some drivers by the additional difficulty of parking parallel to the curb in a short space. Adeptness at this art comes with practice, however.

To Lecture on Children

The Mothers' Council of Narberth offers a course of lectures on "The Understanding of Children," by James M. Heberling, Professor of Child Helping, The William T. Carter Foundation, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

All parents and teachers, both in secular and church schools, are cordially invited to attend this course of lectures on the following Monday evenings in the Narberth School Building, Sabine and Essex avenue, at 8 o'clock.

January 7: "Power of Environment in the Education of the Child."

February 4: "Through the Adolescent Years."

March 4: "Honesty and Obedience."

WINNER OF FORD THANKS THE DONOR

H. W. Pfeffer Approves Idea Behind Board of Trade Campaign.

MAY TRADE IN CAR

The following letter, which we are very pleased to be able to present to readers of "Our Town," is from the winner of the Board of Trade Ford, H. W. Pfeffer, to Chris Koch, as president of that organization. It expresses very succinctly the idea which lay behind the Prize Award Campaign, and which, in the excitement at its close, was easily lost sight of.

To the Narberth Board of Trade, attention Mr. Chris Koch. Dear Mr. Koch:

Now that we have gotten over the shock of finding the winning number for the Ford Coupe in our possession, I would like to express for my family our appreciation.

While a thrill of this sort comes only once in a life time we have not forgotten what your association had in mind when this campaign was started; namely, to shop in Narberth, and with the merchants who depend on this trade for their livelihood, who are a part of the town and are interested in its progress.

From the number of coupons we accumulated, it was apparent that we had been doing this. And it is our hope that this campaign will bring to the independent merchants of your association new customers and make old ones more consistent buyers, because with a greater share of the available business, we, as customers, will also benefit.

With our thanks for the Ford we would like to add that we have enjoyed six years' service from your members.

Wishing you all a very happy and prosperous New Year, I am

Cordially

H. W. Pfeffer.

Mr. Pfeffer's intentions as to his newly acquired Ford are not finally decided upon. The owner of two cars, he is of the opinion that he will dispose of one of them and trade in the Ford for another model since he has a new Essex Coupe. Lack of garage accommodations is all that prevents him from retaining all three; while he is desirous of having a Ford even though not the Board of Trade car.

Maxwell—Maltby

The wedding of Miss Verna Maltby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Maltby, of 420 Essex avenue, and Dr. James Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Maxwell, of 207 Price avenue, took place December 22 in New York City. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. L. D. Maltby, and was attended by Mrs. J. C. Jepson. Mr. Jepson was best man. Dr. and Mrs. Maxwell are now living at the Wilbur House, Sayre, Pa.

Meet Wednesday

The Evangel Circle of King's Daughters will hold their meeting on Wednesday, January 9, at the Community Building on Windsor avenue.

MOTHERS' COUNCIL TO CONDUCT DRIVE

Increased Membership Sought by Local Organization.

HAS GAINED IN FAVOR

It is the intention of the Narberth Mothers' Council, in conducting a membership drive from January 7 to 11, inclusive, to make known to every parent in the Borough that there is available here, at an exceedingly nominal membership fee, a local branch of the National Parent-Teachers' Association. It is assumed that the parental interest in the subject of child welfare, training and education will in itself alone be sufficient to bring them all in as members as soon as the nature, benefits and purposes of the organization are made known to them. Judging by the unusually large and interested gatherings which have marked nearly all of the meetings of the Mothers' Council in its past two years of local existence, that assumption is a sound one.

This membership campaign has been skillfully organized and planned by Mrs. R. G. Aungst, president of the Mothers' Council, and her executive committee. In addition to this explanatory article in "Our Town," the school children, during the period of the campaign, will carry home to their parents a series of colored leaflets which will explain the aims and accomplishments of the Parent-Teachers' Association wherever it may be formed and by whatever local name it may be known.

Reliance will not be placed exclusively on printed publicity. During the days of the campaign the present active members, who have been organized into district groups for the purpose, will make personal calls on all the mothers in the Borough to explain the Mothers' Council to them personally, to answer any questions and to solicit membership. In addition, a "trailer" will be displayed at the Narberth Theater so as to catch the attention of all parents in the audience at that popular picture house. At the conclusion of the campaign there will be a reception to the new members, conducted and arranged by the present old members.

From this outline it will be seen that immediately after this campaign it will be difficult to any mother in Narberth to give a satisfactory explanation, even privately to herself, as to why she is not a participating member of that local organization which with keen, alert, high-minded enthusiasm has been steadily for two years building an articulate and practical interest in the problems of children as they concern the home and school alike and has been bringing parents and teachers into a closer relationship of mutual understanding and helpfulness by means of which they are better able to co-operate in training the child.

The membership fee is only 50 cents, which in itself indicates that it is no bar to the active participation of every parent and that only altruistic motives actuate those who are devoting so much time and effort to the extension of the membership, influence and benefits of the Narberth Mothers' Council.

Will Give Supper

The Standard Bearers' Society of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church will give a sixtieth anniversary supper to the Mothers' organization of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society at the church at 6 P. M., Tuesday, January 15. Plates, 50 cents. For reservations phone Narberth 3741-W.

Addressed Fellowship

Ned Cunningham, of Dudley avenue, gave a talk last Sunday evening at the Young People's Fellowship of All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, on his trip through the Mediterranean. This Sunday there will be a xylophone solo. The Fellowship is also looking forward to a card party at the parish house.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Texas Company has furnished us at their expense with a new coat of paint for our gas tank, have re-lettered our sign, supplied us with an iron container and hoist for our 25-gallon supply of kerosene and did not forget the trifling detail of three tin measures and funnel, so that we would be in shape to sell their coal oil.

The other day we called on this company for gas and lubricating oil and hardly hung up the receiver of our pay phone when across the bridge came their mighty tank and fifteen minutes later another with our oil, etc., both manned with well-paid, intelligent men. We almost forgot to state that best of all the Company has at last given us a little "tick" and now we can owe them a little money as long as we stay in business.

"Honor to whom honor is due," and in that spirit we take off our hat to an oil company that rolls from ocean to ocean and from the land of the palmetto to the sounding woods of Maine.

P. S.—We would like to remind our many friends and enemies that they need not go out into the Township for their gas and oil requirements. While there is less ginger bread and electric display around our pumps, Charley Funk and we ourselves can furnish your requirements at all times and at popular prices. In other words, the slogan "Buy in Narberth" is just as applicable to gas and oil as it is to coal, groceries, hardware, drugs or any of the other commodities sold in Narberth.

NASH DEALER

It is a genuine privilege and pleasure to announce that the Santamarie Motors, Inc., has assumed Nash representation in Ardmore, succeeding to the direct branch formerly operated by us.

We feel that the Roberts Nash Motor Company, Wholesale Distributors, and Nash owners in this section are fortunate in having the Nash franchise entrusted to a concern whose personnel is of such unusual ability and excellent reputation.

Nash headquarters in Ardmore remain at the corner of Lancaster Avenue and Church Road, being well located in the heart of the Automobile district and with ample facilities for displaying the line and rendering service. The Service Station with Parts and Service facilities is likewise located at this address.

You are cordially invited to visit these headquarters to view the display of the new "400" series ADVANCED SIX, SPECIAL SIX AND STANDARD SIX MODELS.

With their new superbly modeled designs, their low body contours, variety of equipment and their sparkingly new color harmonies, they are unquestionably the smartest looking cars on the market, and the many new mechanical and engineering features they embody—newly refined seven-bearing motors, twin ignition, hydraulic shock absorbers, new secret process alloy-steel, tailored springs, and a wealth of others, place them strikingly above and beyond anything else in their field.

IN A CALM— Prepare for Storm

IT IS well to take advantage of the unusual open weather to fill up the coal bins.

Of course, coal can be delivered in a snow-storm, but ice and snow mixed with coal make an unpleasant combination when they get down in your bin and begin to melt.

Call us up while the skies are clear and the air frosty—but while the snow is still in the clouds. We can take care of your order for coal at any time—but so much better when the weather's fine.

Reductions in Long Distance Rates

Effective February 1, 1929

TELEPHONE RATES on Long Distance calls will be reduced again—the third reduction made by the Bell System in little more than two years.

Station-to-Station Day Rates on calls to points 130 to 1,500 miles away will be reduced by amounts varying from five cents to a quarter, and rates for Person-to-Person calls will be lowered in equal or greater amounts.

This reduction in rates—which will mean an annual saving to the American public of more than $5,000,000—is in keeping with the fundamental policy of the Bell System—to furnish the best possible telephone service at the lowest cost to the user.

Further announcements giving detailed information will appear shortly.

Physical Resistance Low Because of Indoor Life

"It is generally conceded that at this time of the year the physical resistance of the average person is likely to be lower than during the 'open-air' months. This results because the usual winter habits of the individual do not include sufficient outdoor life," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, secretary of health, today.

"The natural tendency on the part of the average individual is to hug the heater, indulge almost exclusively in indoor recreation and reduce outside exercise to a minimum. Such habits invite germs to do their worst. There is much more to consider during the rigorous weather than just keeping warm. Many who follow that unnatural practice definitely jeopardize their health and fall victims to disease. In addition many more deprive themselves of that sense of splendid well-being which winter so excellently affords.

"Instead of pushing up the thermometer to an unhealthy degree, complaining about the frigid weather and yearning for spring, one should daily make a real friend of wintertime by way of the long walk or other exercise in the fresh air. The cold northern blasts and the dry, crisp atmosphere are literally laden with pep, but they will not come into one's house and extend their advantages at the fireside. One must go out to meet them."

Sub-Juniors to Meet

At the meeting of the Sub-Juniors to be held this Monday evening at 7.30 in the Women's Club Room several representatives of the Junior Club will illustrate Braille work for the blind which the younger club is planning to take up. Anyone interested is invited to attend and all members are urged to be present to discuss plans for the coming year. The hostesses for the evening are the Misses Betty Otto and Alice Maguire.

This is your paper; your advice will be appreciated.
